         Q. Okay. Then if you look at the allocations
11 for the parent accounts, what are allocations and
12 how are they calculated?
        A. Sorry. Where are the allocations?
                                                           13
        Q. I think it's if you search for
15 "17-Allocations."
16
        A. These are allocations based on accounting
17 treatment. As an example, the first instance of 18 allocations is depreciation expense -- depreciation
                                                           18
